SUPERVISORS HOLD ADJOURNED MEETING

The Board of Supervisors met in adjourned session Monday, January 26, there being present W. H. Brown presiding, Jas. T. Casey, John MacBain, Joseph M. Francis and D. E. Blackburn.

The claim of Enrico Biggio for $525, balance due for the construction of a bridge on the Pescadero-Santa Cruz road, the contract price of which was $2100, was ordered paid on motion of Casey, seconded by Francis.

It was moved by Casey that the plans and specifications for the county road leading from San Bruno to the northerly limits of South San Francisco, which had been prepared by the County Surveyor, be referred to the District Attorney, the Advisory Committee, the consulting engineer and the County Surveyor before being adopted. The motion was seconded by Blackburn and carried.

Surveyor Neuman stated that he had examined the bridge crossing the Cordilleras creek, near the Finkler place in the Third district, and found it to be unsafe.

It was ordered on motion of MacBain, seconded by Blackburn, that the Surveyor prepare plans and specifications for a new bridge.

A resolution was presented by District Attorney Swart directing the Treasurer to set apart out of the General fund $14,389.50 for the payment of nonconsenting land owners for rights of way for the road leading from Colma to San Pedro, in accordance with the report of the viewers of said road filed January 5th, the money to be paid as follows: P. Rosaia $1000, M. M. Zanone $7000, J. A. Hooper et al. $2000, R. S. Thornton $1500, J. J. Carroll $500, A. Doane $889.50, Burke estate $300.

The resolution was adopted on motion of Casey, seconded by Francis, it being the understanding that if the board's offer is not accepted by the land owners the District Attorney is to commence suit to condemn the right of way.

A communication was received from Strong and Farr, insurance agents, notifying the board that the employes of the Federal Construction Company who are engaged in county work, are fully insured under the terms of the Employer's Liability Act.

The District Attroney was directed to prepare a report on the Liability act with a view to insuring the county's employes.

On motion of MacBain, seconded by Casey, Mrs. Vowell, a San Mateo indigent was allowed $18.75, county aid.

The matter of appointing viewers to view and lay out a portion of the new county road in the Fourth district, through the lands of the California Novelty and Investment Company, was referred to the District Attorney.

The following communication was received from County Surveyor Neuman:

To the Honorable Board of Supervisors—Gentlemen: I find that through the opinion rendered by the District Attorney and corroborated by the Attorney General, that it will be impossible for me to obtain additional conpensation that was allowed me by your board, either for the obtaining of rights of way for any other duty, and without this additional pay I find it impossible to get along financially and hold the office of County Surveyor with the duties that are imposed at the present time.

I have carried on this highway work for the past two and one-half years, giving considerably more time then the office hours call for and at a financial loss.

I am therefore compelled to ask you to accept this, my resignation, and which I ask to take effect on February 15, 1914.

Respectfully submitted,

J. V. NEUMAN.

The District Attorney stated that he had been asked by the Auditor for a legal opinion regarding the extra salary of $150 per month heretofore granted to Mr. Neuman by the board, and had advised the Auditor that such payment was not permitted by law. In this opinion the Attorney General had concurred.

The District Attorney further stated that the matter of giving the surveyor extra salary had been called to the attention of the Grand Jury and that body had advised that the Surveyor be sued for the return of the money already paid to him amounting to $650.

After some further discussion of the matter the Surveyor's resignation was laid over until the next meeting, the board hoping that a way would be found out of the difficulty.

Officers of Rebekah Lodge.

Mrs Nevada Burkhart, the district deputy and staff of Palo Alto installed the following officers of Olive Branch Rebekah lodge on Tuesday night: Noble Grand Edna Christensen; vice grand, Jennie Peterson; treasurer, Dora Wilson; supports to noble grand, Helen Poole and Lillian Fox; supports to vice grand, Sally Nelson and Julia Einstein; warden, Margie Winter chaplain, Louise Bettin; past noble grand, Mollie Rico; guardians, George Hopkins and Mr. Kelnopager; organist, Hazel Winter. Mrs. Rice, the retiring noble grand, was presented with a lodge pin as a reward for her able administration.

GRAND JURY PRESENTS BOUQUET TO CLERK NASH

The report of the late Grand Jury filed recently with Judge Buck, had the following to say regarding the office of the County Clerk:

"The office of the County Clerk probably has more details than any other office within your county as this officer has to act as clerk of the Board of Supervisors, clerk of the Superior Court and has charge of naturalization, hunting licenses, registrations and the holding of all county elections."

The report goes on to state that several recommendations of the previous Grand Jury had been carried out by Clerk Nash, adding much to the efficiency of his office.

Fees to the amount of $4904.93 were collected during the year 1913, which is a remarkable showing considering the fact that while the clerk's office is not a fee office, thousands of pages of recording have been done for which no fee can be collected.

When the above amount is compared with the fees collected in 1909, amounting to $3372, one has some idea of the great increase of business in the clerk's office.

Judge Buck, in speaking of the County Clerk's good work, expressed himself as follows:

"The people of this county are to be congratulated on having men of the Joe Nash type in office. He has proven himself capable, honest and fearless and is always to be found at his post of duty."

Officers of Bonita Parlor.

The following officers of Bonita Parlor of Native Daughters were installed by District Deputy Dora Wilson Thursday evening: President, Mary McAuliffe; first vice president, Annie Agrotti; second vice president, Nellie Stafford, third vice president, Nettie Kinne, past president, Emma Mengel; secretary, Mary E. Read; marshal Sophie Offermann; trustees, Dora Wilson Lottie Heise and Emma Mengel; sentinels Agnes Coleman and Mazie Read; organist, Lizzie Hadler. A banquet followed the exercises.

The many friends in this city of Rev. Theodore Taylor will learn with deep regret that he is not in good health and has been unable to follow his calling for several months. Mr. Taylor was formerly the zealous pastor of the Methodist church in this city. He is now located at Sebastopol.

Mrs. W. W. Gillespie who resides on Roosevelt avenue, has gone to Oakland for a two-months' sojourn with relatives.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER

D. E. O'KEEFE, Editor and Proprietor

UP TO THE SUPERVISORS.

It is sincerely to be hoped that the board of Supervisors will find some means of equitably adjusting the question of the salary of the county surveyor, and thus obviate the necessity for the further consideration of the resignation of Mr. Neuman from that office. Under existing conditions the county can ill afford to lose the services of an official upon whose experienced direction depends most of the success of the work of improvement of the county highways, which in reality has just commenced.

That Mr. Neuman is fully competent for the extensive work demanded of the office has been thoroughly demonstrated. From long experience in the office of County Surveyor he has acquired a personal familiarity with road conditions and requirements of the various sections of the county, which under present circumstances is of incalculable value in the prosecution of the work. To allow the place to be filled by another person at this time could but result in at least annoying and expensive delays, if not in ultimate serious loss to the taxpayers.

That the compensation now provided by law for the office is, under present conditions, far from adequate, no reasonable person will contend. Even under ordinary circumstances the salary can be considered but a meager one, providing only a small return for the character of professional services demanded, and which it has received at the hands of Mr. Neuman.

That the salary of the office was fixed before its acceptance by Mr. Neuman is, under existing conditions, no argument in favor of its continuance. At the time of the election of Mr. Neuman to his present term of office—and for many years previous to that time—the work of the county had demanded but a very small portion of the time of the surveyor. It has always been the expectancy of the incumbent of that office that at least a very considerable portion of his income was to be derived from the emoluments of private work. As a matter of fact, it is admitted that it was with this view that the amount of the salary of the office was fixed.

With the inauguration of the present extensive plans of highway improvement not only has it been necessary for the County Surveyor to surrender the additional income from private work, but it has frequently required that much more than the usual office hours should be devoted to the work of the county. So far Mr. Neuman has given of this time without stint and it is the knowledge of those familiar with the affairs of his office that he has perfected admirable plans for the expeditious, accurate and economical carrying out of every detail.

We believe that the tax payers of San Mateo county are generally fair minded people, willing that any work should be paid for at a fair valuation for the services performed. No private employer would expect extra services of an employee without additional pay therefor and the body public has no right to demand what the private individual would not expect.

Cupid Finds Another Victim

Frank Miller, the popular proprietor of the Peninsula laundry of this city, and Miss Margaret Murry were united in marriage at San Francisco Wednesday evening. The romance which culminated in the marriage began here some time ago when Mr. Miller met his future wife at a dance. The mutual sentiment aroused at this time ripened into love and little Dan Cupid lost no time in directing his arrows and as a consequence two hearts now beat as one. Mr. Miller was at his desk yesterday but denied himself to all visitors. Mr Miller and his charming bride will make their home in this city. They start married life with the best wishes of a host of friends. Mr. Miller is manager of the Peninsula laundry company, a concern which does business in all the towns from Burlingame to Palo Alto. Tuesday he started off for San Francisco without even saying "good-bye" and Wednesday the marriage license appeared in the metropolitan papers.

Sheehan Announces Candidacy.

M. Sheehan, the popular and fearless constable of the Second township, announced his candidacy yester for the office of sheriff. His friends throughout the county have been awaiting this announcement for some time and now that the popular officer has shied his hat in the ring they will make a vigorous campaign for him. Mr. Sheehan is one of the best known officers of the county, having made during his term of office many clever captures of daring criminals in this county and adjoining districts. He has a splendid record, but he is best known by his work as probation officer of the county. His good judgment, kindness to the little ones under his care and firmness in dealing with those enjoying the benefit of probation have won him the esteem of every citizen of the county. The announcement of his candidacy will be received with enthusiasm wherever he is known in the peninsula and from now until next August his friends will work, leaving nothing undone to secure him the nomination. In his case a nomination is equivalent to an election.

People Show Appreciation.

That the people of this city appreciate a really good show was shown last Wednesday evening when the Bell Theater was packed to its utmost capacity by a discriminating audience to witness the presentation of "Quo Vadis." Another extra program last night was also greeted by a large and well pleased audience. This program, which besides five great reels of pictures, included a program of specialties by Miss Mary Snowden, a specialty performers of much ability, will be repeated this evening, when the prices will be 10 and and 15 cents.

For Sunday evening there will be an extra program at the usual popular 5 and 10 cent prices. This will be a five reel show, including an amusing Keystone comedy. For Monday and Tuesday the feature attraction will be a two-reel Selig drama, "The Quality of Mercy.

Athlete's Wife Seeks Divorce

Raymond Titus, in his high school days one of the best-known athletes in California and now a traveling representative of the Pacific Manufacturing Company of Santa Clara, is sued for divorce in an action filed in San Jose by Mrs. Bliss Rockwell Titus, who alleges that Titus has kept company with other women, naming specifically Miss Etta Stone.

Mrs. Titus was known here as Bliss Rockwell and before her marriage was one of the clerks in the courthouse. She was an extremely pretty girl and her marriage to Titus some years ago was quite a society affair.

PESCADERO CORRESPONDENCE.

PESCADERO, Jan. 28—The body of Joseph B. Jackson, the young rancher of Pescadero, who disappeared nearly twenty days ago, was found in a lonely spot in the Butano hills Saturday by one of several searching parties which had been scouring the country for more than a week. Although a deep wound on the head at first led the authorities to believe that the young man might have been a victim of foul play, the theory is now advanced that he was struck by a falling limb during the storm.

Deputy Sheriffs John H. Bennett, H. L. Good and F. L. Barney were in charge of the case, but telephonic communication between Pescadero and outside points has been cut off for several days and they were unable to notify Sheriff Mansfield at Redwood City of the discovery of Jackson's dead body.

The position of the body and a bloody trail through the woods indicated that Jackson had made a hopeless struggle to crawl back to civilization before lapsing into unconsciousness. He traveled more than half a mile after receiving the fatal blow, but was still many miles from the nearest house when his life flickered out.

The body had probably lain in the woods for more than a week before the searching party came upon it.

The young man left camp on the coast for his home, intending to stop on the way and do some trapping. When he did not arrive at his destination, a searching party started the following Thursday to cross a ridge in the general direction in which Jackson had gone. The members found Jackson's coat and a trap near the top of the ridge, but that was all. Since then daily parties, numbering as many as twenty-five of the missing man's friends, have scoured the hills, but to no purpose. It is estimated that one thousand acres were tramped over in the search.

Jackson had no provisions with him and had counted on being in the hills only a few hours.

In early days he was engaged in lumbering and manufacturing shingles. He retired from business sixteen years ago. He leaves a wife and eight children, five sons and three daughters to mourn him. Mr. Blomquist was a man of robust honesty, strict integrity and upright in all his dealings. He enjoyed the esteem of all who knew him. The funeral took place on Wednesday. Interment was at Pescadero. For some time he had been troubled with heart disease and it was that ailment that finally caused his death.

PATRIOTIC EXERCISES BY WOMEN'S RELIEF CORPS.

The installation of Gen. Geo. S. Evans', Women's Relief Corps, No. 36, took place Friday evening last. The attendance was unusually large despite the inclement weather. The installing officer, Mrs. Alice Mansfield, being escorted into the hall by the color bearers, immediately proceeded to reiorse the incumbents and enter upon the duties imposed upon her. The work, which is purely patriotic, was considered to be most inspiring and elevating. The following is a list of the officers: President, Lu A. Harris; senior vice president, Harriet Nichols; junior vice president, Maude Price; treasurer, Emma Winter; chaplain Martha George; conductor, Mary Winter; guard, Regina Hess; assistant conductor, Lillian Fox; assistant guard, Metha Barg; secretary, Mary E. Read; patriotic instructor, Caroline Heiner; press correspondent, Augusta Geary; color bearers, Nora Harih, Clariss Dodge, Agnes Coleman and Tessie Jones; musician, Dolly Jamieson.

According to an unwritten code, at the conclusion of the installation, an emblem of the order, a magnificent gold badge, was presented to the retiring president, Mary E. Read. In recognition of her services, Mrs. Mansfield was the recipient of a beautiful cut glass nappy, the gift of the president, Lu A. Harris.

A very pleasing and well merited presentation was made at the installation, when Past President Mary Read presented in a very affable and earnest manner a beautiful cut glass berry bowl, to the retiring treasurer, Mrs. Augusta Geary.

Mrs Geary having served in that capacity for fouteen years, with the exception of one year when she filled the President's chair. Her repeated reelection was proof of the able manner in which her work was performed.

She responded feelingly, in words which spoke her deep gratitude for the appreciation of the co-operation of the members in the patriotic work of the corps and loyalty to eachother.

Among the enjoyable features of the evening were a piano solo by Miss Margie Winter, a vocal solo to her own accompaniment by Miss Gerturde Read and a solo by Miss Alma Read, interspersed with remarks by Comrades Mansfield, Chamberlain and Rhodes, who complimented the work of their auxiliary and by the several ladies of McKinley Corps of Palo Alto, who expressed their delight at being present. The assemblage then repaired to the banquet hall where a sumptuous repast was enjoyed by one and all, the festivities closing with the singing of "God be with you 'till we meet again."

At twelve dollars a cord the neat sum of $240 will be realized from the sale of wood, though the owner of the oak valued it at thousands.

It is coming to Menlo Park. No, youare wrong. It is not the new electric road from San Francisco. That may come in time and again it maynot. Some of us hope it will and some of us hope it will not. The pros and cons of that question have not yet been argued out. But that is another story. Menlo Park is to see it through. No, you are wrong again. It is not Sells-Floto or Bailey and Barnum. We never do have a circus in Menlo Park. At least not that regularly advertised kind. We have talent of our own however. Why should we worry? And then, besides, Redwood City or Palo Alto never could pay for a real live circus if Menlo Park people did not help them out. But that is another story.

It really is coming to Menlo Park though. And, after all, when we come to figure it out, it really promises to be of more immediate interest and advantage to Menlo Park people than any new electric road. Most of us don't want electric roads any way. What we want is our own automobile. It is the only way to travel. But that is another story.

And if we are sincere, we must admit a regular circus is a very simple, childish affair and none of us ever goes to one except for the sake of the children. But that is another story. This though is really not at all simple In fact it is decidedly a complicated affair. The date? Oh, yes, February 20th. February begins tomorrow, Sunday. It will be 19 days after that. The number 19 reminds us. It will stop over night at Palo Alto on February 19th and will be in Menlo Park February 20th. That will be just two weeks from next Friday. Three weeks from yesterday. Come to think of it, it will be only five days before lent. Catch any of us missing that last chance. February 20th, yes, that's the date We would tell you more now but we are too excited to write. We'll give you the whole story—and it is a good one—in the Times-Gazette

Trustees' Report Approved.

Judge Buck, yesterday, rendered an opinion in the matter of the settlement of the report and statement of the trustees of the Pope minors. The accounting was asked by the father of the minors, who is a prominent lawyer in Chicago. The minors are the grand children of the late John T. Doyle, at one time the leader of the bar in this state. The first report of the trustees was rejected by the court and the new one filed some time ago was approved by Judge Buck in the following opinion.

"In the matter of the settlement of the accounts of the trustees of the Pope minors. The accounts of the trustees, John J. Doyle and Edmund M Doyle, presented herein, will be approved. There may be, but of that I am not sure, some small loss to the Pope minors resulting if at all from errors, in bookkeeping, but in any event it would be a very small sum of money. The trustees of the Doyle estate, by my interpretation of the will of John T. Doyle, have treated liberally the Pope minors, in fact these minors have received more than their share of the property from the Doyle estate. There has been no evidence presented to warrant me finding any bad faith or breach of trust on the part of these trustees and there is nothing to warrant me in finding that these trustees should be removed."

Highway Routes Discussed

The routing of the State Highway through Redwood City was the subject of a very interesting meeting of the Board of Trade Tuesday night. There was a large representation of the businessmen present and the discussion of the matter was quite earnest.

H. C. Tuchsen stated that the people of Redwood City were not interested in the route that would be taken by those whose destination was San Jose or any other city south of us. He had so expressed himself to the Highway Commissioners. We were interested, however, in providing a safe ingress for those who desire to come into town and who have business with us. The Broadway crossing was perfectly safe and at the disposal of all such travelers. He believed the plan of building an undergrade crossing at Beresford was not feasible. Such crossings, for obvious reasons, are a greater danger to life than grade-crossings. The plan was not to eliminate a road but to build a new one and the more highways the county had the better off it would be. We must set aside personal interest and consider the welfare of our neighbors, those on the west side of the railroad who are compelled to cross the tracks to reach the county road. Mr. Tuchsen was sure that the State Highway Commission would adopt only one route from Beresford to this city and that would be on the west side of the railroad.

George A. Merrill gave a history of the movement to construct a roadway on the west side of the raidroad tracks. It was talked of and encouraged by both the city council and the board of supervisors many years ago and in the course of events had been passed up to the present council, the object being to obviate the dangerous crossing at Wellesley Park. He had no very strong personal interest in the matter and although he was the owner of property in Redwood City he favored the west side routing of the highway. Those who had business in Redwood City would come into the town.

Asa Hull said that his objection to the west-side routing was because the road must of necessity cut through the center of his property at San Carlos. Personally he preferred the present Camino Real.

Mr. Tuchsen said that the present county road on the east side of the railroad would never be abandoned or neglected. He had the personal assurance of Supervisor Brown that it would be given an asphaltum surface, making it equal to the State highway. He moved that it be the sense of the meeting that the State Highway Commission construct a road on the west side of the track. The motion was seconded by D. E. Graham, after which the discussion was continued.

Mr. Behrens called attention to the city's good streets and believed that it would be beneficial to the merchants to divert travel through the center of the city.

D. R. Stafford said that if 3000 automobiles passed through town each day, each one carrying five people, they would not leave as much money in town as a score of pedestrians. Redwood City needed an electric road to build it up and make business better. The fact that we could boast of a fine straight road down the peninsula would be the best attraction we could have.

C. E. Cumberson, P. P. Chamberlain, R. E. Bowie and others spoke on the subject. Mr. Tuchsen called for a vote and the result was that sixteen were of the affirmative while five were against the motion.

The secretary was directed to communicate the result of the meeting to the Highway Commission.

FEEBLE OLD PEOPLE

Are Told How to Regain Strength and Vigor.

As one grows old the waste of the system becomes more rapid than repair, the organs act more slowly and less effectively than in youth, the circulation is poor, the blood thin and digestion weak.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic without oil is the ideal strengthener and body-builder for old folks, for it contains the very elements needed to rebuild wasting tissues and replace weakness with strength. Vinol also fortifies the system against colds and thus prevents pneumonia.

Mrs. Mary Ivey, of Columbus, Ga., says: "If people only knew the good Vinol does old people, I am sure you would be unable to supply the demand. I never took anything before that did me so much good as Vinol. It is the finest tonic and strength creator I ever used in my life."

If Vinol fails to build up the feeble, old people, and create strength we will return your money.
